

Dwelling type in 2023 by age group and gender

Different groups of people choose to live in different types of dwellings

Data source: StatsNZ

Joined private dwellings are all dwellings that are horizontally and/or vertically attached to at least one other dwelling.

Other dwelling types include aged care facilities, marae complexes, hospitals, boarding houses, prisons, defence establishments, night shelters, and camping grounds.